Dear Mr. Nemcosky:

This is further to our letter dated 11 April 2019 and is also a final response concerning your 1 April 2019 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records on the following:

- 1. Any use or experimental data on nano fibers that appear neon under a black light.
- 2. Inquiring as to what these neon fibers consist of.
- 3. What use they are intended for.
- 4. What health affects if said fibers can be used entering the human skin.
- 5. Is there any relation to computer technologies synergistic to these fibers.
- 6. Desperation method if applicable.

We have completed a thorough review of your request and have determined in accordance with Section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information protected from disclosure by Section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Therefore, your request is denied pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). I have enclosed an explanation of these exemptions for your reference and retention. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

If you have any questions regarding our response, you may contact us at:
